

In today's class, you will learn

Language-How to discuss, motivate, reflect and present arguments

Content-learning about your hotel, understanding the homepage, state your opinion

The same material for all 3 levels

Work together in groups and look at the homepage (starter page)

- Look at some of the pictures on the homepage, what does that picture represent?
Why have they chosen that picture? Discuss and write your arguments

Specified material for level 1 (B1-B2) *

Work together or individually and answer the questions below

- A group of 55 people from the car industry are having a conference at the hotel.
 - a) Which conference room would you recommend and why?
 - b) After the conference, they would like to visit the main attractions of the city, what would you recommend and why?
 - c) Where should they go for dinner?
- The slogan of the hotel is "Your individuality is our strength" what does that mean and why do you think they chose that slogan?
- What is the slogan of your hotel? (at your internship)

*students may use the homepage of their own hotel to individualize the class even more.
They can also compare different homepages from different hotels.

What have the you learned

How to make arrangements and tailor an itinerary

To reflect, discuss and motivate

How to state your opinion in a group

Knowledge on how to navigate on a homepage (ENT)

Finding information focused to your own hotel (ENT)

Compiling information

Connecting information from class to your internship and further connecting the internship back to the class on the next lesson (ENT)

Taking responsibility (to solve the exercise) (LA)

Making choices (working in pairs/groups/individually) (LA)

Presenting information to others

Strategies (LA)