EARLALL's MISSION: At the heart of the EU'S VISION

EARLALL's STRATEGY: Aligned with the EU'S GOALS

European Commission

Strengthening European Identity through Education and Culture (November 14, 2017)

"Competences for education and culture lay primarily with Member States at national, regional and local level."

Proposal for a Council Recommendation on Key Competences for Lifelong Learning

"Education and training are part of the solution to get more people into decent jobs, respond better to the skills the economy needs and strengthen Europe's resilience."

"Lifelong learning offers a way for re-skilling and up-skilling [...]. It is essential to seek convergence and increase the share of people engaging in learning throughout their lives. This would be a promising way to improve skills and knowledge capital in Europe."

Ursula von der Leyen

President-elect of the European Commission, July 2019

"The best investment in our future is the investment in our people."

"We need to change the culture of education towards lifelong learning that enriches us all."

- EARLALL – European Association of Regional and Local Authorities for Lifelong Learning – is an international non-profit association registered in Belgium and established in 2001 under the initiative of regional governments willing to build a solid cooperation in the field of lifelong learning.
- Led by the Basque Government, it is managed by a Board and a General Assembly. Today, it represents 12 members/regional authorities, 3 associate members and a group of partners, whose aims are to cooperate and raise the role and visibility of regional and local authorities in the field of lifelong learning at European and international level. The Secretariat in Brussels ensures the day-to-day management.
- Members are actively involved in the life of the organisation through their participation in meetings, technical groups, thematic seminars and other events to take forward joint projects.
- EARLALL believes that regions and local authorities have a privileged role in designing and implementing strategies on lifelong learning, since they are in direct contact with citizens, educational institutions and business environment.
